10% TARIFFS ON REMAINING CHINESE ORIGIN GOODS STARTING SEPTEMBER 1st -- NEGOTIATIONS TO CONTINUE

Today, President Trump announced that starting on September 1, 2019, goods of Chinese origin that are not already on Lists 1, 2, or 3 will be subject to a 10% tariff. To be sure, the USTR will have to finalize the list of affected tariff codes but today's tweet means that virtually all trade from China will soon be subject to additional tariffs - unless a product's tariff code is one of the few tariff codes that have not been included or is otherwise covered by an exclusion decision made by the US Trade Representative's office. Negotiations with China remain ongoing.

Pisani & Roll LLP will provide an additional updates as further details are released.
